

Mobilities and Infrastructures: Transitions and Transformations

Monday, 23 September 2024 - Wednesday, 25 September 2024

Lancaster University Leipzig

Scientific Programme

Contestations around mobility and infrastructures

Longue durée perspectives on green transitions

Mobility and infrastructures in front of climate emergency

Time, temporalities, transitions

Mobility technologies: technical fix, technological pessimism, shock of the old, and resistances to it

Global and regional approaches, including e.g. post-Soviet or Sub-Saharan perspectives

Global politics and geopolitics of mobility and infrastructures

Mobility transition versus mobility transformations

Imperial, trans-imperial and (post)colonial infrastructures

Metaphors of mobility – highway, railroad, route and network.

Mobility in culture: literary, musical, artistic perspectives

Arts and creativity towards transformation

Activism around mobility and infrastructures

Mobilities on the margins and mobility justice: Race, gender, ethnicity, disability and othering